It's easy and it's free.

Introducing Leebug.com - proactively promote your company to prospects and attendees of premiere events with innovative Web 2.0 advertising tools.

Supercharge your conference exposure and network online before, during and after events.

Leebug.com provides a cost-effective, centralized, location to maximize conference networking online. Whether you are attending a conference or not, use Leebug's e-Exhibit tools to promote your product.

Join Leebug.com's e-Exhibition hall

Set up a virtual booth (v-Booth) using our intuitive turn-key dashboard – select a conference, upload content and begin promoting your product. Assign booth attendants for an interactive presence. Upload logo, marketing materials, firm description and details. Use Leebug.com's interactive tools to promote your company, attract attendees to your v-Booth, announce Meet-ups, build a distribution list and grow your business.

Marketing Challenge	Leebug.com Solution
Maximize product exposure	Post v-Booths on multiple event listings; reach attendees and form relationships around the world with 24/7 interactive web presence.
Staff the exhibition booth	The Leebug.com e-Exhibition hall is always open - network before, during, and after the event.
Gather new prospective clients	Interact directly with attendees, build a distribution list and promote your product. Attract people to your v-Booth by announcing special promotions and Meet Ups.
Differentiate and position as an industry leader	Create excitement and generate buzz: Share testimonials and promote product launches.
Build brand recognition	Brand throughout Leebug.com - on member home pages, event listings, dedicated promotions pages and more.
